Student Association Minutes

After a devotional, the Executive Council met to discuss problems and projects of the campus. All members attended the April 5 meeting except Mike Whittaker.

Girls are encouraged to send their "thank you" notes to donors who contributed to the building of Kendall dormitory.

The Council discussed the possibility of leaving the Emerald Room for longer periods. The President will discuss this situation with the administration.

Students are encouraged to participate in the Red Cross "Blood Drive" on April 7. The previously set record of 240 pints has been surpassed. Harding hopes to set a new record again!

Harding has been selected as the location of the Christian College Conference next year. The Council will begin planning for this event as soon as possible.

Elections for student body officers will be held April 26. All qualified students are encouraged to run for an office. Qualifications are found in the Student Handbook.

The trophies in the Student Center trophy case are being replaced by Club Trophies.

Student Association Minutes

After the devotional, the Executive Council met for its regular meeting, April 5, 1966. Dwayne reviewed attitudes of the past semester and encouraged each member to have a "backbone" instead of a "wishbone."

Old Business

I. Dwayne reminded members to get caught up!

- A. Humanities Week-meeting Thursday morning at 8:00.
- B. "Thank You" Letters follow up-Cynthia and Linda.

II. Emerald Room-Bob Rader

Bob discussed the possibility of opening the Emerald Room all the time because:

- a. $100 investment would be better used.
- b. More students waste time during day than at night.
- c. Students want it. (Bob talked to 15-20 leaders)
- d. Most college lounges are open all the time.

Cynthia: Supervision is not needed all the time.

Mike: I think it should be open all the time.

Spears: We only need supervision with the games.

David: We could put it on a trial basis.

Bob: I move we leave it open all the time just like the downstairs Inn. Connie seconded and all favored.

Bob: In addition to previous motion, I move that we leave the room open every day all day without supervision and every night except Saturday night with supervision. David seconded and all but Jim Anderson favored.

III. Old Cafeteria Seating-Jim explained that it was a haphazard arrangement, so Dwayne said he would talk with her.

IV. Blood Drive:

David Smith was appointed to take care of the S.A.'s work on the blood drive.

New Business

- I. Meeting with North Central Coordinator-Wednesday, April 27 at 3:15 with all Council, Cabinet and Class Presidents. Medearis will check with all Cabinet members.
- II. Prayer Breakfast for Statewide College Leaders (April 16).

Among those who plan to attend are Cynthia Hawkins, David Smith, Bob Rader and Jim Anderson.

Cliff moved that the Council pay the gas, then discussion followed. Dr. Gilliam felt that the S.A. should pay the expenses.

David moved that the Council pay $3 for each person and $5 for each carload for gas. Cliff seconded and all favored.
- III. Christian College Conference: Harding has been selected as the location for this event next year. The Council will plan the theme, and other essential areas as much as possible this year. Linda Spears, David Smith and Jim Anderson will organize and report on files to the Council at the next meeting.
- IV. Elections-April 26 for Council officers.
- V. S.A. Speaks-Connie and Jim.
- VI. Birthday Card for Dr. Ganus-the Council signed it.
- VII. Trophy Case-Mike Frampton will take care of moving trophies from one case to the other.

Linda Spears moved the Council adjourn, and many seconded.

Respectfully submitted,
